The very same "Thai Mango" friends bring from Thailand.

Mango can reduce weight and normalize blood cholesterol. It is full of vitamins B (B1, B2, B5, B6, B9), vitamin A, C and D. Mango contains various minerals - zinc, manganese, iron and phosphorus. Mangoes contain substances that regulate the metabolic rate in the body, accelerate the excretion of fluids and are powerful antioxidants.

Also, mango is considered a natural antidepressant. Regular consumption of mangoes helps relieve nervous tension, improve mood and prevent the risk of depression.
